§ 138-1. Boisterous conduct.

No person shall, either alone or in congregation with others, engage or indulge in any noisy or boisterous conduct to the annoyance of the public generally in or upon any part of any street, sidewalk or public place within the Village of Sodus Point.

§ 138-2. Gambling houses and houses of prostitution.

No person shall operate or maintain or cause or procure to be operated or maintained in any building within the Village of Sodus Point, whether as owner, lessor or lessee of such building or otherwise, any device for gambling or wagering or any room or place of gaming, wagering or prostitution.

§ 138-3. Public and private nuisances.

No person shall maintain or cause or procure to be maintained within the Village of Sodus Point, upon or in connection with the use of any property, public or private, real or personal, any public or private nuisance.

§ 138-4. Penalties for offenses.

A violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be punishable by a fine not in excess of $100 for such violation. Where any violation is of a continuous or continuing nature, each day on which such violation shall continue shall be deemed to constitute a separate violation and shall be punishable accordingly. Upon conviction of any violation, the magistrate may require the defendant to pay the costs of the proceedings. Unless the penalty and the costs, if imposed, be paid upon conviction, the magistrate shall commit the defendant to the County Jail of Wayne County for a term not exceeding one day of each dollar of the penalty imposed. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deprive the Board of Trustees of the right to enforce obedience to the provisions of this chapter or penalties imposed for violations thereof by any other means provided by law, including but not limited to actions to recover penalties and injunctions.
